not less than 3% in vacancies in government jobs for persons with disabilities. The States/Union Territory administrations have initiated action to implement the provisions of the Act.

Further, in pursuance of the provisions of Section 32 of the said Act, the Ministry had constituted an Expert Committee to identify/ review the posts in Group A, B, C and D to be reserved under Section 33 of the Act, for the disabled persons in the establishments of Government. of India. The Committee had submitted its report and the same has been finalized.

Assessment of number of senior citizens and old age homes

115. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have made any assessment of number of senior citizens and old age homes in the country;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) what measures have been taken by Government for the betterment of life and welfare of the senior citizens;

(d) the existing policy, if any, laid down down by Government in this respect; and

(e) if answer to part (d) be in the negative, whether Government would consider the question of formulating such a policy?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI MANEKA GANDHI): (a) and (b) Yes Sir, two Statements marked I and II indicating the projected number of Senior Citizens as per 2001 census and number of old age homes are placed on the Table of the House (See below).

(c) (i) National Council for Older Persons (NCOP) has been set up on 10th May, 1999 to operationalize the National Policy for Older Persons, which was announced in January, 1999. The first meeting of NCOP was held at New Delhi on 13th June, 2000. The members discussed the draft Action Plan for implementation of the National Policy on Older Persons. The process of finalization of Action Plan is in progress.

(ii) 'Aadhar' has been set up to function as Secretariat of NCOP. The major activities of Aadhar include receiving and taking follow up action on representations, the complaints and grievances of older persons.

(iii) Both the ongoing schemes of the Ministry for welfare of older persons have been reviewed and revised in the light of the National Policy.

(iv) The Ministry has commissioned a project called OASIS (an acronym for Old Age Social and Income Security) and appointed an Eight Member Expert Committee, headed by Dr. S.A. Dave, former Chairman of UTI, to examine policy questions connected with old age income security in India and submit its recommendations to the Government. The Committee submitted its final report on 11.1.2000 on which action is being taken by the Government.

(v) On the request of this Ministry, Chief Justice of India advised Chief Justices of all High Courts in the Country to ensure expeditious disposal of Court Cases involving Older Persons.

(vi) Union Health Ministry has issued instructions to all the State Governments/UT Administrations for provision of separate queues for older persons at all stages.

(vii) At the initiative and with the financial assistance of this Ministry, a Telephone Helpline for older persons has been started by an NGO called Agewell Foundation. This Helpline is functional from April, 1999.

(viii) The National Institute of Social Defence has started a six months course for home care of elderly disabled persons. This course will help to prepare a cadre of Geriatric Animators to render comprehensive care to the aged in their homes and in the community.

(d) The Government has framed a National Policy on Older Persons, which was announced in January 1999.

(e) Does not arise.
